1. Venture Philanthropy and Social Investment

Definitions, the why of VP/SI and recent trends

- Society needs new models to tackle societal challenges – considering the persistency of challenges, and diminishing resources of governments
- Social Enterprises and Social Purpose Organisations lack stable funding, organisational capacity and access to partnerships to most effectively resolve challenges found in society today at scale needed

Venture Philanthropy is about matching the soul of philanthropy with the spirit of investing

Introduction to VP / Different investment approaches

Introduction to VP / The characteristics

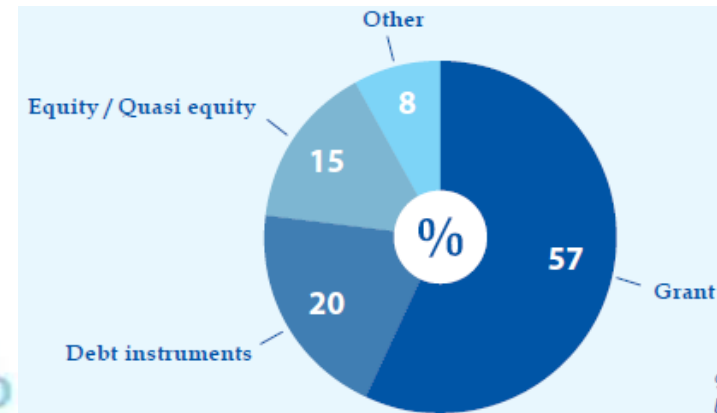

Introduction to VP / Recent trends

Over €5 billion invested since inception

Average financial support per VPO increasing by 28% to €8 million from FY 2012 to FY 2013.

2. Introduction to EVPA

Why we exist and who our members are

Introduction to EVPA / Our organisation

EVPA is a membership association made up of organisations interested in or practicing venture philanthropy and social investment (VP/SI) across Europe. EVPA currently gathers over 180 members from 25 countries.

Mission

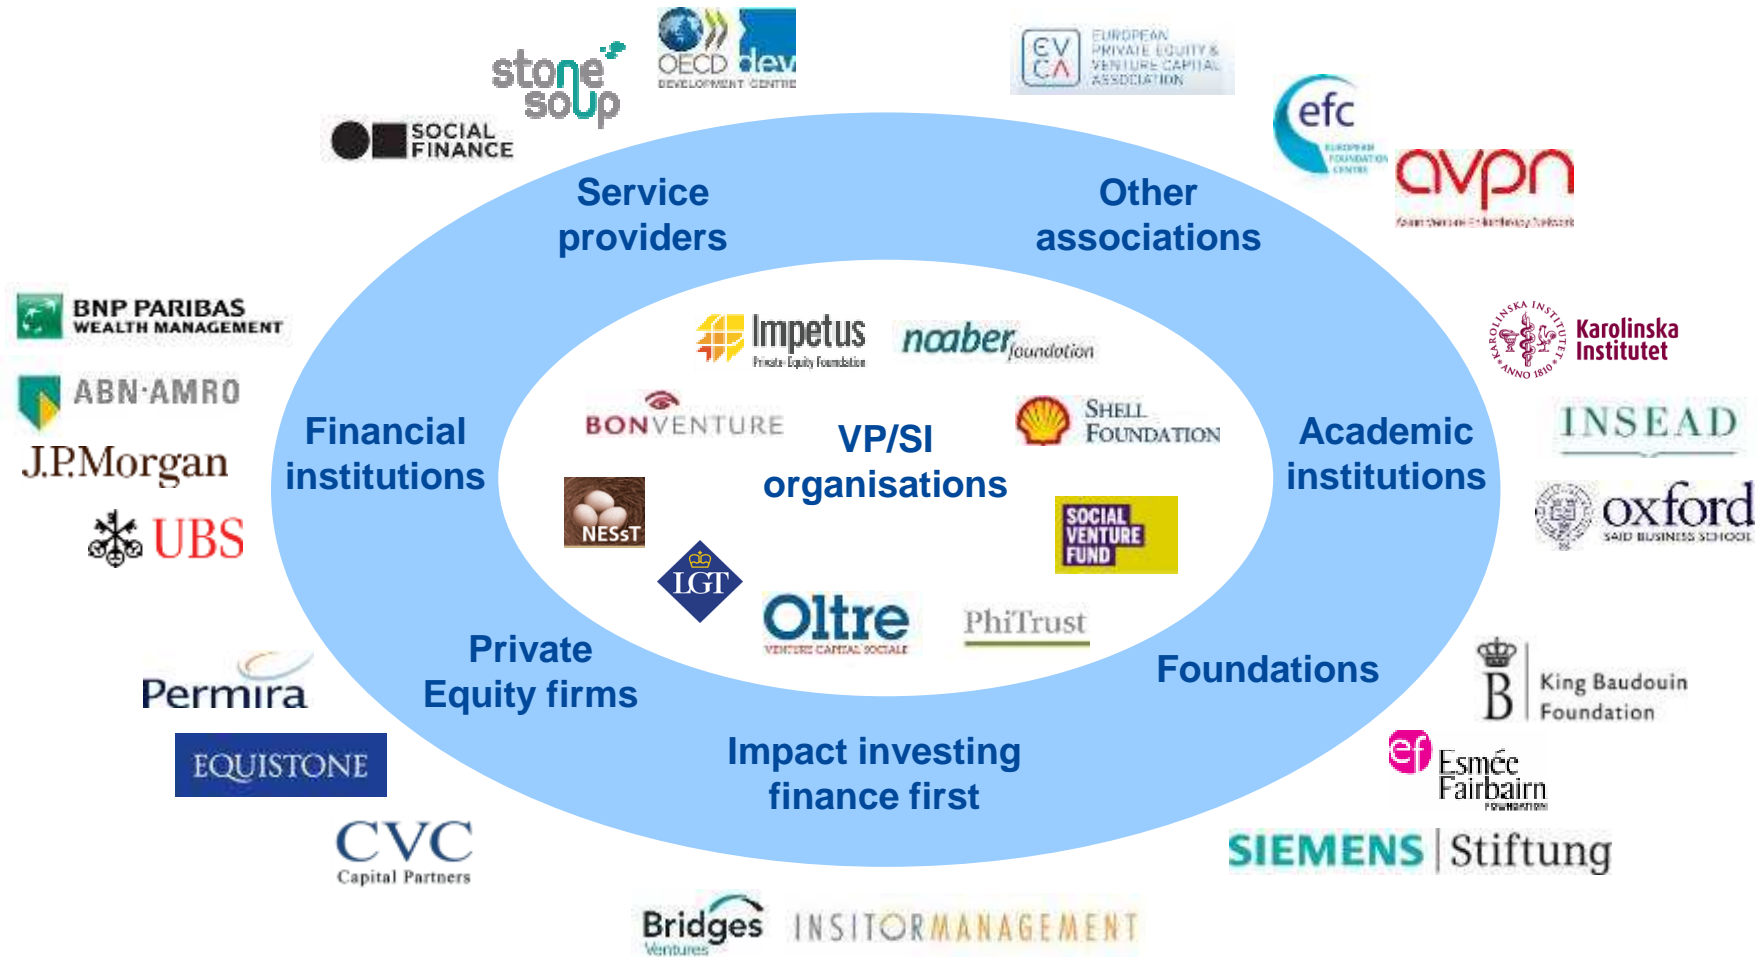

- To be the natural home as well as the highest-value catalytic network of a growing number of VP/SIs.

Objectives

- EVPA is about increasing the effectiveness of VP/SI practitioners in Europe.
- EVPA is also about increasing the resources dedicated to VP/SI in Europe.
