Community building initiatives

Reflection on community-building

- How do these initiatives relate to your national/local context?
- Have you encountered resistance/support from the local population? How does this affect your work?
- Are these specific approaches that have been successful in your context to facilitate intercultural dialogue and trust-building?
- What are the key elements to make community-building projects sustainable in time?
- How do you gather feedback from participants (migrants and hosting communities)?
- How can organizations better measure success and impact concerning social inclusion?
